INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No. PCT/GB00/02171

I. Basis of the report

1. With regard to the elements of the international application (Replacement sheets which have been furnished to the receiving Office in response to an invitation under Article 14 are referred to in this report as "originally filed" and are not annexed to this report since they do not contain amendments (Rules 70.16 and 70.17)):

Description, pages:

1-10 as originally filed

Claims, No.:

1-27 as originally filed

Drawings, sheets:

1/2-2/2 as originally filed

2. With regard to the language, all the elements marked above were available or furnished to this Authority in the language in which the international application was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

These elements were available or furnished to this Authority in the following language: , which is:

- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of the international search (under Rule 23.1(b)).
- ☐ the language of publication of the international application (under Rule 48.3(b)).
- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rule 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

- ☐ contained in the international application in written form.
- ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.
- ☐ The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.
- ☐ The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished.

4. The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

- ☐ the description, pages:
- ☐ the claims, Nos.:

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No. PCT/GB00/02171

☐ the drawings, sheets:

5. ☐ This report has been established as if (some of) the amendments had not been made, since they have been considered to go beyond the disclosure as filed (Rule 70.2(c)):

(Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report.)

6. Additional observations, if necessary:

III. Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

1. The questions whether the claimed invention appears to be novel, to involve an inventive step (to be non-obvious), or to be industrially applicable have not been examined in respect of:

☐ the entire international application.

☒ claims Nos. 1 - 20.

because:

☐ the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos. are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):

☐ the claims, or said claims Nos. are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.

☒ no international search report has been established for the said claims Nos. 1 - 20.

2. A meaningful international preliminary examination cannot be carried out due to the failure of the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing to comply with the standard provided for in Annex C of the Administrative Instructions:

☐ the written form has not been furnished or does not comply with the standard.

☐ the computer readable form has not been furnished or does not comply with the standard.

VII. Certain defects in the international application

The following defects in the form or contents of the international application have been noted:
see separate sheet

1. Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following document:

D1: WO-A-98/24 512

1.1 The document D1 discloses (the references in parentheses applying to this document):

An apparatus for use in stimulating collagen containing structures comprising a source of illuminating radiation and means for directing the illuminating radiation to a target site (Fig. 3 and page 5, paragraph 4).

Document D1 discloses all features of the subject-matter of independent claim 21. Thus, claim 21 does not fulfill the requirements of Article 33(2) PCT.

1.2 Dependent claims 22 - 26 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty, the reasons being as follows:

claim 22

The document D1 discloses focussing means (page 8, lines 10 - 15) and an emitter portion through which the radiation is emitted (Fig 3).

claims 23, 24

The means for directing the illuminating radiation are manually as well as automatically controllable (page 5, paragraph 4).

claim 25

The additional feature is anticipated by document D1 which shows a pulsed radiation wherein the pulse duration is 200 μ s to 1 ms (page 6, paragraph 6).

claim 26

Scanning means are disclosed in document D1 (Fig. 3 and page 8, lines 10 - 16).

1.3 Claim 27 defines a beam of illuminating radiation. Such a beam is not a matter but rather a physical effect which does not comprise the features immanent to a device or an apparatus. Thus, the subject-matter of claim 27 is not applicable in the sense of Article 33(4) PCT. Moreover, the subject-matter of claim 27 is not novel (Article 33(2) PCT) as the features of said beam are disclosed in document D1 (page 6, last paragraph).

2. Re Item VII

Certain defects in the international application

2.1 Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the document D1 should have been mentioned in the description.

2.2 The independent claim 21 should have been drafted in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would have been appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art (document D1) being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(i) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).

2.3 The features of the claims should have been provided with reference signs placed in parentheses (Rule 6.2(b) PCT).

6. Additional observations, if necessary:

III. Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

1. The questions whether the claimed invention appears to be novel, to involve an inventive step (to be non-obvious), or to be industrially applicable have not been examined in respect of:

☐ the entire international application.

☒ claims Nos. 1 - 20.

because:

☐ the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos. are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):

☐ the claims, or said claims Nos. are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.

☒ no international search report has been established for the said claims Nos. 1 - 20.

2. A meaningful international preliminary examination cannot be carried out due to the failure of the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing to comply with the standard provided for in Annex C of the Administrative Instructions:

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

International application No. PCT/GB00/02171

1. Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following document:

D1: WO-A-98/24 512

1.1 The document D1 discloses (the references in parentheses applying to this document):

An apparatus for use in stimulating collagen containing structures comprising a source of illuminating radiation and means for directing the illuminating radiation to a target site (Fig. 3 and page 5, paragraph 4).

Document D1 discloses all features of the subject-matter of independent claim 21. Thus, claim 21 does not fulfill the requirements of Article 33(2) PCT.

1.2 Dependent claims 22 - 26 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty, the reasons being as follows:

claim 22

The document D1 discloses focussing means (page 8, lines 10 - 15) and an emitter portion through which the radiation is emitted (Fig 3).

claims 23, 24

The means for directing the illuminating radiation are manually as well as automatically controllable (page 5, paragraph 4).

claim 25

The additional feature is anticipated by document D1 which shows a pulsed radiation wherein the pulse duration is 200 μ s to 1 ms (page 6, paragraph 6).

claim 26

Scanning means are disclosed in document D1 (Fig. 3 and page 8, lines 10 - 16).

1.3 Claim 27 defines a beam of illuminating radiation. Such a beam is not a matter but rather a physical effect which does not comprise the features immanent to a device or an apparatus. Thus, the subject-matter of claim 27 is not applicable in the sense of Article 33(4) PCT. Moreover, the subject-matter of claim 27 is not novel (Article 33(2) PCT) as the features of said beam are disclosed in document D1 (page 6, last paragraph).

2. Re Item VII

Certain defects in the international application

2.1 Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the document D1 should have been mentioned in the description.

2.2 The independent claim 21 should have been drafted in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would have been appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art (document D1) being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(i) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).

2.3 The features of the claims should have been provided with reference signs placed in parentheses (Rule 6.2(b) PCT).
